PRICE 5 CENTS

MOLLIE MONTROSE IS BEST.

HAS NO FANCY FOR HEAVY GOING, BUT WINS JUST THE SAME.

Her Third Set of Brackets at New Orleans— Matador Is Badly Handled—Lloyd Rides Well.

New Orleans, La., January 31.—There was not much to the racing at the Fair Grounds this afternoon. Four of the seven races on the card were selling affairs and in the main it was a mediocreliot of horses that figured in the contests. The track was still heavy and holding. The two-year-old race gave Mollie Montrose another opportunity to show her merit. She was the favorite and heavily supported. Early in the betting there was some doubt about her ability to run over a heavy track. This caused her price to recede from 9 to 10 to 7 to 5. Then came a disposition to take a chance that with all her early speed she would be able to get so far in front that the others would never catch her, and with this feeling, the money poured in. This line of reasoning proved correct. Mollie Montrose won solely because she outclassed her company and not because she liked the going. As a matter of fact the finish found her staggering and sprawling a bit, but she hung on gamely. The race marked Mollie Montrose's third successive victory. She will do, especially over a fast track.

Aubuchon's riding of Matador in the third race was unsatisfactory. Taking his race of Tuesday as a line, Matador looked like a good thing to many and he was heavily backed, though those who follow the form strictly gave their support to Blue Dalo. After Meadowbreeze was withdrawn this horse figured best. But Aubuchon got Matador cut off at the three-eighths post, then pulled up and went to the extreme outside. These tactics ruined whatever chances Matador might have had and the finish found him fifth in a field of nine.

Dapple Gold, in the first race, was splendidly ridden by Lloyd, and it was due alone to his strong finish that the horse won. Dapple Gold was tiring all through the last sixteenth. He wanted to quit, but Lloyd kept driving and got to the finish a head in front of Sponge Cake.

Jockey Crimmins arrived here from New York yes-

Jockey Crimmins arrived here from New York yesterday and will ride as a free lance. He will remain here until the opening of the Bennings meeting.

These horsemen shipped their stables to Hot Springs this afternoon: A. C. Bellew, J. B. Givens, Lockart Bros., C. Schawacker, W. L. Hatchett, M. Burton, L. Schuckman, T. Ryan, and J. S. Merchant. In the latter's lot are the horses of E. J. Gildersleeve, P. J. Millett and H. H. Aiken. Jockey Nicol will leave Memphis tonight and Jockey Nicol will leave Memphis tonight and will ride whatever Fred Cook starts in the St. Charles Hotel Handicap Saturday.

Mose Goldblatt has purchased from Burlew & O'Neill the three-year-old filly Fantastic for $2,200. He will ship her and five others to Hot Springs. Goldblatt has made arrangements with Aubuchon to ride for him at Oaklawn.

Paul J. Rainey arrived here yesterday and will probably remain until after Mardi Gras.

SOME FAST WORK AT OAKLAWN.

Three Furlongs Close to :35 by Two-Year-Olds the Order of the Day.

Hot Springs, Ark., January 31.—The scene at Oaklawn this morning was one of nauch animation. The track is fast and three furlongs in :35 and fractions were frequent. There seems to be an unusually good lot of two-year-olds here. George Innes has several youngsters, by Box, that are working sensationally and horsemen are much impressed with them. In the H. B. Baker consignment is another youngster by the same sire that was faster than anything sit Montgomery Park. The New Orleans delegation, it is thought, will have things pretty much its own way during the first week of the meeting, as the horses that have been trained here and at Memphis are still considered a bit backward and may not show to their best form during the early period of racing.

The overflow set in today when some horsemen who had not been assigned stable room arrived and had to shift as best they could to house their charges. Several found quarters adjacent to the track and some were temporarily cared for in livery stables. The arrivals today were J. Garson, V. Hollar, G. B. Hill, C. Drake, J. Mundy, Henley & Son, Frisbie & Williams, J. Ammerman and M. L. Mowers. Application for stable room from J. B. Dunand W. W. Elliott, now racing strings in California, had to be turned down because of the scarcity of

WILL VOTE ON AMIS BILL MONDAY.

Turf Interests Feel Confident the Amendment Will Pass-McGuigan Goes Home.

Little Rock, Ark., January 31.—The Amis bill, with its amendment legalizing betting on race-tracks, will be voted upon in the Senate Monday. It has been made a special order for that day. The racing interests are satisfied that the amendment will pass, but they are still at work among the members of the legislature. "Bill" McGulgan, who came here to aid the reformers, has folded his umbrella and gone back to his home in Garland Counity. It is not known just what pressure was brought to bear, but whatever it was it silenced him quickly.

COMPARATIVE WEIGHTS FOR THE BIG HANDICAPS.

Although the thousands of people in Chicago who could formerly look forward to annual resumption of racing over local tracks with impatient anticipation can no longer indulge in hopes of soon viewing their favorite recreation again, the old-time interest in the annual allotment of weights to the big Brooklyn and Suburban bandicaps is unabated. The table here published gives the weights for both, as well as for the Brighton Handicap, together with the scale of weight for age and the weight on or off in the case of each horse. The Brighton weights were published and commented on in Dally Bacing Form last week. Weights for the Brooklyn and Suburban were due yesterday under their conditions and were furnished the press in New York late Wednesday night by Mr. Vosburgh. All of the handicaps being framed by one man, the weights are naturally along pretty much the same lines, but from the fact that the Suburban and Brighton both have winning penalties, the usual additions to imposts will crop up to materially affect the chances of a number of the candidates. The success of Kercheval in the Burns Handicap, for instance, has already increased his weight for the Brighton to the extent of eight pounds. Consideration of problems involved in the three greatest of all our handicaps is commended to all interested in racing.

*Though the nominations of Old Honesty and Phil Finch were declared void under Rule 72, and so published in the Racing Calendar of January 17, weights were assigned to them by Handicapper Vosburgh in his announcement of the weights for the Brighton Handicap on January 24. Since the announcement of the weights for the Brighton Handicap it transpires that the entry of Orbicular is also void under Rule 72 and for that reason no weight was allotted to him for the Brooklyn Handicap.

TREVELYAN TO BE ON HAND MONDAY.

New Orleans, I.a., January 31.—Prancis Trevelyan has wired President Barnes of the City Park Jockey Club that he will leave Charlottesville, Va., Saturday and will take up his duties as presiding judge at City Park Monday.

PETER DURYEA A BUREAU HORSE.

Lexington, Ky., January 31.—The $500 presented to the Breeding Bureau in this state by J. B. Haggin has been used to purchase the stallion Peter Duryea from George H. Grayson at Texardelphia, Ark. The horse will be sent to Henderson county.

SUSPEND OWNER AND HORSE

OAKLAND OFFICIALS TIRED OF DAVID BOLAND'S IN AND OUT RUNNING.

Jocund Makes Good Under Jockey Brown— Eudora Is All but Left—Another Bad Day for Miller.

Oakland, Cal., January 31.—The horse David Boland and his owner, John McCarty, a wealthy and prominent politician and brother to the famous "White Hat" McCarty, racing under the nom de course of the Reality Stable, were suspended after the erratic five-year-old's performance in the fifth race today in which he started a strong favorite with Walter Miller up.

Jocund, ridden by A. Brown, this season's jockey find, won a hard earned and lucky victory in the closing race. The Jennings' horse, on the strength of his good work for the Burns Handicap, was backed into hot favoritism and made good, but was hard pressed at the end. Eudora was virtually left at the post; otherwise she would have upset the good thing.

"Lucky" Baldwin's crack, Cruzados, has been shipped to Santa Anita ranch. He will be retired to the stud. Kercheval has been shipped back to Los Angeles.

Barney Schreiber has released trainer D. Henry, and has taken personal charge of his big Emeryville string.

W. Cahill bought Brush Up from H. T. Griffin today and Paddy Lynch acquired George P. McNear. The Prices were not divulged.

The Prices were not divulged.

Cold, damp and discouraging weather conditions prevailed. The card was moderate, and the racing uninteresting and devoid of special feature. Walter Miller had four mounts today. The best he could do was second on Mechant.

BULLMAN'S RIDING BRINGS CHEERS. Martha Jane's Victory Due to the Old-Timer's Exceptionally Strong Finish.

Los Angeles, Cal., January 31.—A threatening sky, which finally cleared off, had no deterrent effect upon today's attendance at Ascot Park. The card was made up of five selling races and an allowance race with comparatively small fields. The sport was somewhat dull, but was relieved in a measure by the intensely close and interesting finish in the fifth race. Jockey Bullman put up a splendid effort on Martha Jane, fairly throwing her head over first in the last stride in front of Bendaga. Bullman was cheered to the echo after dismounting. No jockey here has anything on him when it comes to riding two-year-olds.

Cigarlighter smothered the others in the third race and Treasure Seeker won his second brackets at a mile from a poor lot of three-year-olds. It was a bad day for the layers.

SALE OF TWO-YEAR-OLDS.

New Orleans, La., January 31.—The following horses, the property of Burlew & O'Neill were sold in the paddock at the Fair Grounds today:

Total for seven head$5,125

BEAUCHAMP TO RIDE AT OAKLAWN.

Cincinnati, O., January 31.—Willie Beauchamp, who rode in Germany the past three years, stopped here en route to Hot Springs. He says it is his intention to ride at Oaklawn and that he will remain in this country this year unless Nash Turner succeeds in securing him an engagement in France. Beauchamp says he can ride as light as 102 pounds.

CHARLIE ÉASTMAN SPLITS A HOOF.

New Orleans, La., January 31.—James K. Frayling, who handles the horses being raced here by E. S. Gardner, reports that Charlie Eastman split one of his hoofs in his race yesterday, when he was beaten off by Glamor and Pity.

NO ALLOWANCE FOR LLOYD.

New Orleans, La., January 31.—Jockey Lloyd, it is announced, is not entitled to an apprentice allowance. He rode his first winner before his contract papers were lodged with the governing body.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

Joe Ullman is among the latest arrivals at New Orleans.

Jockey Earl Embry's apprentice allowance will expire today.

The owner's fee to jockey Koerner for his victory on Kercheval in the Burns Handicap was $500.

The contract on jockey Louis Beckman has been transferred from T. J. Gaynor to Frank D. Weir.
Frank Kelly, who rode Borghesi in the Burus Handicap, says the Spreckels horse needs a let-up for a while in his training.

Lucky Dog, the stalling donated to the Mississippi Breeding Bureau by George C. Bennett, has been shipped from Memphis to the state's breeding farm at Oakley, where sixty-five mares from Missouri were recently placed.

ANSWERS TO QUERIES.

[Communications without names and addresses of senders will not be answered or noticed.]

Emil H., Chicago. Under the circumstances deribed by you the bet won and is to be paid, rating e entry at 4 to 1.

MeIntyre, Cincinnati, O. On the day of the Meadowbreeze race the track was at its fastest. The statement that it was "good" should have been fast. The time of the race was conclusive evidence on that point. The bet is to be paid.

Winner—Ch. h, by Father Confessor—Koffee (trained by U. Z. DeArman).

Went to post at 2:15. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won handily; second easily; third driving. Confessor regained his speed suddenly and trailed close up for the first five furlongs, then moved up fast and, finishing with a rush, easily wore down Woodthorpe. The latter ran a good race and showed gameness under the whip, tring only in the closing strides. Reservation swerved badly in the final hundred yards, almost running into the outside rail under the whip. Azora tired under punishment. Sir Caruthers showed the most early speed, but failed to stay. Merlingo quit badly. The winner was in for $1,000; no bid.

Overweights—Bill Curtis, 1½ pounds.

66727 FOURTH RACE—1 Mile. (1:38½—4—100.) Purse $400. 4-year-olds and upward. Selling. Net value to winner $325.

Winner—Ch. g, by Fonso—Lucasta, by Hayden Edwards (trained by J. Curl).

Went to post at 3:13. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won easily; second the same; third driving. Foncasta was always in forward contention, quickly ran into the lead after turning into the stretch and held his opponents safe to the end, winning with something to spare. Belvoir was sluggish for the first half, but moved up gradually thereafter and finished fast. Stoessel ran in Improved form and gamely wore down Taylor George in the closing strides. The latter was speedy, but tired fast when the pinch came. Netting showed speed. The winner was in for $400; no bid.

Scratched—66553 Rama, 105; 66612 Phyz, 105.

Overweights—Taylor George, 2 pounds.

66728 FIFTH RACE—1-2 Mile, (48–2—118.) Purse $400. 2-year-olds. Allowances. Net value to winner $325.

Wimer—B. c, by Indio—Chemica (trained by S. C. Hildreth).
Went to post at 1:43. At post 4 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second driving; third the same.
Billy Watkins, from an outside striding start, overhauled the leaders in a twinkling and, staying gamely, won going away. Albia broke striding, but was shuffled back, then came again gamely and ran a good race. Wilmore broke slowly and loomed up menacingly on the last turn, but quit badly. Exchequer showed superior early speed, but tired and was palpably short. The others were beaten off. Frank Skinner is not ready, but is a grand looker. Ruth Taylor suffered from crowding at the start.

Winner—Ch. f, by Cesarion—Bezique (trained by W. L. Lewis).

Went to post at 2:32. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second and third the same.

Mollie Montrose was away well and set a fast pace, but tired in the last furlong and had to be hard ridden to stall off Dew of Dawn. The latter is a big filly, stood the final drive in game fashion and was wearing the winner down at the end. Bitterly began slowly and was outrun for the first quarter, but closed a big gap and finished gamely. Hazel M. was on the inside in doep going all the way. Coincident finished fast. Sainesaw closed a big gap. Rebel Queen ran poorly.

Winner—Br. g, by Faverdale—Blue Jacket (trained by W. Kunze).

Went to post at 3:00 At post 1 minute. Start good. Won easily; second and third driving. Blue Dale, favored by light weight and the going, worked his way up on the outside, came with a rush on the turn into the homestretch and drew away easily in the last furlong. Mafalda began quickly and set the pace for a half mile, but was tiring at the end. Voting, on the extreme outside on the backstretch, cut across to the inside in the stretch and finished gamely in the deep going. Excitement showed speed, but failed to stay. Matador was cut off at the three-eighths post when he attempted to come through next to the inside rail, then went to the outside and was carried very wide on the turn for home. Denats Sullivan stumbled and fell before he had gone a quarter. The winner was entered for $1,000; no bid. Scratched—(66586) Meadowbreze, 110.

	THE JOCKE New York st		racing	after

The law in New York state forbids racing after November 15 and before April 15. The rules of the Jockey-Club are in keeping with the law. Therefore no scale of weights for December, January and February are provided. The first month covered in the Jockey Club's scale is March, this is due to the fact that the Washington Jockey Club begins the season at Beauings in that month.

AMERICAN TURF ASSOCIATION.

In races of intermediate lengths, the weights for the shorter distance are to be carried. In races exclusively for two-year-olds, 118 pounds shall be carried.

BRIEN DISCUSSES KERCHEVAL

R. C. Brien, of Nashville, Tenn., the breeder and part owner of Kercheval, which in the hands of trainer and part owner W. V. Conran won the Burns Handicap and again showed his heels to Nealon in the mile handicap at Oakland, Wednesday, was at Oakland to see the colt's victory in the big race last Saturday. Mr. Brien was for many years secretary to General W. H. Jackson and had much to do with the management of Belle Meade Stud in the last days of the General's life. It was through this connection that he became racing and after the death of General Jackson and his son and the passing of Belle Meade as a breeding establishment Mr. Brien engaged in breeding on his own account. Many of the horses raced last year and the year before by Stanley Kunz came to the Chicagoan through Mr. Brien. The San Fran-cisco Chronicle of Sunday tells of Mr. Brien's visit to Oakland and quotes him as follows as to Kercheval and the race:

"I just thought I would come along and see my horse race," said he simply. "Yes, it's a long way from here to Tennessee, and I am going back tomorrow night win or lose, but you see this colt of mine beat Dr. Leggo twice and the more I thought of that and the weight he had to carry the more I thought it was up to me to pack a valise and come along. He's a good colt, I don't know how much speed the others have, but I know he will be running at the finish. He's bred that way.

know how much speed the thinsh. He's bred that way.

"Now they give my horse's breeding as by The Commoner or Tithonus, but you can bet all you have in the world that the latter horse is his father. Tom Boy, his mother was twenty-five years old when he was born. She is dead now. I bought her at a weeding out sale that the General held. She goes right back to old Gamma. That's how I know that this colt will stay. It's that old Hickory strain of blood. You can't beat it in any country in the world."

General Jackson thought as much, and maybe more, of Gamma as of any racer he ever owned. He used to say of her and her progeny: "They can breed till the day of judgment, but that blood cannot be duplicated. They will stay when the rest are ready to hang their hides on the fence."
